THE SUMMER SCHOOL IS STEEPED IN YEARS OF TEACHING
REIKI, SHAMANIC
PRACTICE AND PLANT MEDICINE

LEARN HOW TO COLLABORATE WITH THE WISDOM OF NATURE

This 3 or 6 day practical immersion will guide you on an experiential journey in which you will learn from the plants themselves.

You may naturally find yourself healing blocks, gaining confidence, trusting your intuition more, enhancing what you innately know and feeling ready to bring out this wisdom to benefit yourself and those around you.

The Summer School offers support and facilitation to deepen your connection to your intuition and the plants and elements of nature that surround you. Part one of the Summer School will help you immerse yourself in the language of nature and your intuitive senses to meet plant allies to assist your personal healing.

Part two will teach you how to weave the plants into your current practice to bring the healing power of nature into your work to benefit you and your clients. It will bring clarity to your soul calling and help you reclaim your power to embrace the way nature's intelligence expresses itself through you.

For Reiki Level two practitioners, on completion of the full summer school together with relevant case studies, you may obtain certification as a Plant Spirit Reiki Practitioner if you wish.

If the plants are calling to you, the time is now!

FAY JOHNSTONE

YOUR TEACHER & FOUNDER OF THE PLANT SPIRIT REIKI SCHOOL

Over 20 years of Reiki connection plus more than 10 years of Shamanic practice, herbal training and passion for plants is brought together in this year training for the first time ever.

Plant Spirit Reiki is a natural progression of my Reiki and Shamanic teachings woven together with the guidance and power of the green kingdom. The plants have brought me here and it's now time to deepen the journey so that the teachings from Reiki, the earth and the plants can come forward through me and those who participate in this training. This is a new chapter for my Reiki practice and this training is the doorway for all those earth conscious healers who are willing and ready to make it their own.

If your practice or the plant whispers are calling you to go deeper and you would like to work with me on this training, to deeply listen and be inspired on a journey that will transform you, then get in touch at fay@fayjohnstone.com to arrange a zoom call in which I can answer your questions.

There are 8 places open, is one of them yours?
